Picture Books with Simple Texts: Choose picture books with vibrant illustrations and straightforward narratives. Focus on identifying main characters, setting, and simple plot points. Ask questions like: "Who are the main characters?", "Where does the story take place?", and "What happened at the beginning/middle/end?".

Matching Games: Create simple matching games pairing pictures from the story with corresponding words or phrases. This reinforces vocabulary and comprehension of key elements.

Compare and Contrast Activities: Encourage students to compare and contrast different characters, settings, or plotlines across multiple Halloween stories. This develops critical analysis and comparative skills.
